Intelligent Fire
Bones or Medals
Russia Puzzles Finance
A New Republic

BY ARTHUR BRISBANE
THE RAZES the old Bluecher in Berlin, just bought for $100,000 for a United States em-intelligent fire. It might have been worse. It reminds the United States that their government, in the commission and unemployment of $1,000,000 to supply a palace to an American ambassador, gets his job, usually, as a reward for contributions to a campaign fund.

A man rich enough to help elect a President is rich enough to buy his own palace, if he needs it.

This is a business country. Its citizens should have a business office, and board and lodge themselves, as other Americans do.

To suggest that squandering money in that fashion impresses foreigners is foolish. The Germans know we have the money; why waste it on them that we lack common sense?

A nation that shudders at the thought of handing a dollar to a half-starved family should shudder also at the thought of buying a palace for a series of political ambassadorial favorites. That nonsense ought to stop.

NEXT SUNDAY "Kindness-to-Animals Week" begins. Mrs. Bell, head of the New York Anti-Vivisection society, will give medals for heroism to six dogs.

The dogs would prefer six good bones, but that does not spoil the kind-hearted idea. Men keep dogs and give them medals. If dogs kept men they would give bones to heroic men.

In the long run, after a hundred or a thousand years, it won't make much difference whether you got a medal or a bone. Nobody will know anything about it.

The greatest kindness to animals would be their gradual elimination, as their usefulness ends. Why breed faithful dogs to lick your feet?

NOT LONG AGO Henry Ford
had nothing. But he was thinking and working. Last Tuesday he died from his factory to his own residence in his Ford car number twenty million. He made the first in 1893 and the 20,000,000th will stand in the Ford museum beside the first. Ford has made automobiles enough to carry 100,000,000 human beings, in fact out of the population of 123,000,000, without packing them too tightly, the babies sitting on their parents' knees.
It pays to think and work. Neither by itself will carry you far.

RUSSIA has no death penalty for murder, but many death penalties for dishonesty and treachery.
A week ago six were sentenced to death in connection with grain transactions, now 10 more must die for the same offense, and 58 go to prison as "inveterate class enemies."

At the same time Russia invites skilled workers from other countries to come and earn good wages.
Workers will wonder that there isn't in Russia anybody out of a job. American hotel keepers will learn from Ray Long, magazine editor, that it is almost impossible to rent a hotel room in Russia.

He was delighted to get a small room by special favor, with no carpet on the floor, paying 18 American dollars a day.

One of our best financial minds has once had only contempt for Russia, may soon be going over to find out how they do it.

THE SPANISH KING went to Marselles, on a battleship. The

The Stars Say—

For Friday, April 17.

BY GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

A DAY of setback, impediment and restlessness may be expected, judging by the intervention of major mistakes in mutual menace. Affairs may be under a disruptive influence, with tendencies to make changes or renewals, but tenacious obstacles and disagreeable experiences may hamper all initiative or real achievement. Personal matters may not be so disastrously afflicted.

Those whose birthday it is may be prepared to meet a year of stubborn obstacles and impediments to the successful fruition of the most earnest efforts or cherished enterprises. It would be well to postpone important new ventures. The personal affairs may not prove so disappointing and should be compensatory. A child born on this day may be restless, unsettled and prone to new ventures, which may encounter much opposition and hostility. The child should be given careful education and inculcated in philosophic and optimistic tenets.

MONOXIDE GAS TOLL SLUMPS

Deaths from Stove Fumes Decrease; Auto Fumes Add to Casualties.

COLUMBUS, O., April 16—The rate from carbon monoxide deaths by heating appliances in Ohio has fallen off, the state department of health has revealed. The report showed such deaths were operated less frequently during the nine months ended June 30, 1930, than during the nine months ended June 30, 1929. A slight change in number of cases of monoxide poisoning reported but a decided downward trend in fatalities. There was, however, a sharp increase in both cases and fatalities from automobile exhaust fumes, the department reported, with one more death during the nine-month period than during the entire preceding 12 months. From July 1, 1929 to March 31 this year, 93 cases and 19 deaths were reported from cases of monoxide poisoning, compared with 127 poisonings and 52 deaths during the 12-month period. Carbon monoxide fatalities from motor car exhaust fumes are more than holding their own, according to the department. The records showed 81 cases with 36 deaths for the nine-month period, compared with 84 cases and 35 deaths during the preceding 12-month period. Running the motor in a closed garage was characterized by the department as an outstanding hazard. Of the 36 deaths, 34 occurred in garages, but three were listed as suicidal. One fatal case was complicated with pneumonia and one with exposure. Commenting on this hazard, Dr. H. G. Southard, state health director said: "Too few individuals realize the dangers of automobile exhaust gas fumes. Many motorists undoubtedly believe that the short time they remain in the garage is of no consequence, and they blithely disregard all warnings, to the sorrow of their families and friends. Carbon monoxide cannot be taken lightly. It is a dangerous poison at all times."

SCHOLARSHIP TEST ON FRIDAY PROGRAM

High School Students Entered in O. S. U. Agricultural Competition.

By The Associated Press. COLUMBUS, O., April 16—High school students throughout Ohio will compete Friday for 20 agricultural scholarships awarded annually by Ohio State university. Girls and boys are eligible for the scholarships, which are worth $240 each. Winners of the scholarships will be entitled to free tuition for a four-year course in agriculture at the university. The examinations are open to seniors who will be graduated this spring. The examinations will cover agricultural subjects only, and the papers will be graded at the college of agriculture. The winners will be announced in May. The scholarships were established by the university to interest high school graduates in the opportunities in agriculture as a profession.

Historic Stairs at Ohio Capitol Must Do for Another Two Years

By The Associated Press. COLUMBUS, O., April 16—The spacious stairs tramped by Ohio's favorite sons who strolled the Presidency or other high political office must suffice for at least another two years to convey the present-day lawmakers into the legislative halls of the state capitol.

They had an opportunity at this session of the general assembly to vote funds for an elevator, but they turned it down. The stairs lead off the northern and southern courts of the capitol and empty into the rotunda. They have felt the tread of such men as William McKinley, Rutherford B. Hayes, William Howard Taft, Warren Harding, Myron Herrick, James Cox and Alben Barkley. And a host of other dignitaries, whether they were visiting officials or men bent on state business have climbed countless times the twin stairs that lead to the house on one side and the senate on the other.

It is not exactly clear why Ohio legislators have consistently refused to install an elevator in the capitol. It would serve more than the purpose of a mere entree into the legislative quarters. For, up on the third floor are some ancient rooms set aside for committee meetings and another flight of stairs is the only means of reaching them.

Depression probably had something to do with this year's decision to walk where the forebears have walked. The assembly was reluctant to vote money for an elevator when the state needs money badly for its operating needs.

And in view of the fact that a modern state office building is being constructed a block away from the housing of those departments which the outgrown capitol could not accommodate, some of the representatives agreed that they had better wait and see how the state fares on office space.

Effect of New Ball on Big League Play Still Doubtful

BARRAGE OF HOMERS GOES ON, BUT MOUND WORK ALSO BETTER

Eight Hurlers Go Full Route on Second Day; Grimes Scores Shutout.

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer. Fans who haven't already forgotten the pre-season hullabaloo over the new baseball used in the major leagues this year may well wonder after two days of big time play what effect the altered sphere is having.

It seems evident the ball is still lively as the home runs are made at their usual rate, but good pitching performance is appearing on the increase as well. Eight pitchers went the full route in the two major leagues yesterday, an unusual number for the second day of the season.

"Bump" Hadley of Washington and Burleigh Grimes, veteran spitballer of the St. Louis Cardinals, shared the topmost hurling honors. Hadley limited Philadelphia to four hits while the Senators fell on big George Earnshaw for five runs in the fourth inning and a 7 to 1 victory. Grimes pitched the Cincinnati Reds down with seven blows as the Cards won 4-0. Red Lucas went the route for Cincinnati.

Bob Smith of the Chicago Cubs and Claude "Weeping" Willoughby of Pittsburgh staged a full length duel, the Cubs winning their second straight 6 to 5. Manager Rogers Hornsby provided the winning run with a homer.

Continuing the surprises of the opening day, the Boston Braves and St. Louis Browns each won a second successive game and joined the Cubs, Cardinals and New York Yankees in the top positions of the two leagues. Effective pitching with good hitting behind it told the tale in each case.

Although both were hit rather freely, Sammy Grey of St. Louis beat Walter Hoyt of Detroit to gain a 6 to 4 triumph. Both hurled the full game. Seibold held the Brooklyn Robins to eight hits to give the Braves a 9 to 3 triumph. The New York teams figured in the leading slugging contests. With Lou Gehrig's first home run as the big blow, the Yankees scored five runs in the first inning then barely outlasted the Boston Red Sox, putting over a run in the ninth to win 8-7. The Phillies slammed five giant pitchers and scored eight runs in the second inning to triumph 10-7. Chuck Klein's third homer in two days was the feature.

In the remaining game, the Chicago White Sox squared their series with Cleveland by a 7 to 1 ten inning victory.

More than 98 per cent of the population of the Netherlands used electricity for light or power; 50 power plants being in operation in the country.

Ohio Players to Have Busy Year On Golf Links

By The Associated Press. COLUMBUS, O., April 16.—With the fixing of July 23 and 26 as dates of the state public links golf championship and the first part of September for the state open, one of the most pretentious links programs ever planned for the Buckeye state has been completed. The public links will be played at the Indian Springs course here, boosting Columbus total of state and national tournaments to three—the Ryder cup matches, state amateur and public links. The state open will be held at the Shawnee club in Lima, probably the first week in September.

Ohio's golf season will start early this year, on June 8 when professionals and other players of the state gather at Youngstown and state amateur to qualify for the national open tournament. The qualifying rounds will be followed by the Western open at the Miami Valley club in Dayton, June 17-20. Of late years the Western has drawn a field almost as large as the national.

After the Western comes the international matches for the Ryder cup at the Scioto Country club, Columbus. A qualifying round will be held on June 24 or 25 to fill vacancies on the American team with the matches proper coming on June 26 and 27. The matches will be preceded by a national press tournament. On June 28 amateurs will qualify for the National at Cincinnati.

Columbus will be a deserted town, as far as golf is concerned, a week after the Ryder cup matches. Professionals and fans alike will flock to Toledo where the National open will be played at Inverness on July 2-4.

Two days after the Open closes amateur players in the state will be back in Columbus to play in the state tournament at the Wyandot club.

Women of the state will then have their turn, gathering at the Westwood club in Cleveland for their annual state tournament on July 13-17. On July 28 amateurs from the northern section of the state meet in Cleveland to qualify for the national amateur, which will be held Aug. 31-Sept. 1, at the Beverly Country club in Chicago.

The Ohio professionals will close the state season the first week in September when they play the state open at the Shawnee club in Lima and at the same time select the qualifiers to represent the state in the National P. G. A., but this year three additional places have been allotted.

WOOD AFTER RECORD

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., April 16.—Wood piloted his Miss America IX at a speed of 102.534 miles an hour one way over the measured mile course in Indian creek here today in the first of a series of runs in which he hopes to break the world's speedboat record.

League Members. The members of the Nos. 1 and 2 Sunday school circuits will remain the same this season as last with a single exception. No. 1 league members are Epworth No. 1, Epworth Seniors, Epworth Bishops, Calvary Evangelical, Lutheran, Trinity Baptist, St. Mary and Lee Street Presbyterian. Lee Street is the single new member, having come up from No. 2 circuit by virtue of winning the championship of the lesser loop last season.

Members of No. 2 circuit this year are Forest Lawn, Central Christian, Wesley M. E., United Brethren, St. Paul Lutheran, First Reformed, Presbyterian and Central Christian No. 1.

Industrial league members this year are Erie Roundhouse, Fairfield Engineering Co., Chesapeake & Ohio R. R., Marion Steam Shovel A. A. C. D. & M. Ohio Fuel Gas Co., and Silk Mills and Huber Mfg. Co.

Commercial league members this season are Kappa Alpha Phi, K. of P., Company B—O. N. G. General Excavator, Serv-U-Wel, Prospect Firemen, Erie Traffic Club and Wesley Juniors.

Two amendments were passed to rules already in force. One provides that any base runner will be automatically out if he leaves the base before the ball is hit by the batter except in cases where stealing is legalized under existing rules. The other provides that all competitors in recreation ball must be residents of Marion county.

A petition was presented by Marion Hinklin, who said he represented no particular organization, for the legalizing of longer bats than now allowed. Hinklin requested that the new rule if adopted would become effective in 1932. The commission deferred consideration of the petition until the next meeting.

TITLE BOUT LOCATES PLACE IN WHICH TO FLARE UP OR FIZZLE

Public Interest in Schmeling-Stribling Fight at Cleveland at Low Ebb.

By United Press. SOUTH BEND, Ind., April 16.—The Max Schmeling-Young Stribling heavyweight bout, with its many strange angles, finally has found a place to fizzle out or flare up to boom boxing after a long period of depression.

The match for the world's title—everywhere except New York state—will be held in the new municipal stadium at Cleveland on the night of July 3. The bout is scheduled for 15 rounds and the price from $25 to $2 exclusive of tax.

Dick Dunn, vice-president and general manager of the Boston Garden who will promote the match for the Illinois branch of Madison Square Garden corporation, made the official announcement here yesterday after conferring with Joe Jacobs, manager of Schmeling. Despite the official announcement many skeptics will have their misgivings about the ultimate fate of the bout. A maze of confusion has surrounded all negotiations for the bout since its first conception several months ago.

"Cleveland is virgin territory," says Jacobs. "They've never held a heavyweight championship bout there. Schmeling and Stribling have never boxed there. Cleveland is within a 500 mile radius of half the population of the United States. Every seat in the new stadium is raised to permit everyone to see. It looks like a great success and a $1,000,000."

Oddly enough, the last time any negotiations for a heavyweight bout went on here Jack Dempsey signed to defend his title against Harry Wills in 1926 before he lost it to Gene Tunney. That bout was never held but the promoters of this one do not seem to be superstitious.

Plainly this bout needs some kind of synthetic ballyhoo. Schmeling stood on the sidewalk for 15 minutes here yesterday talking German to his trainer and a German photographer, while one lone fight fan came up to an American newspaper man and asked: "Are you Schmeling?"

That never happened when Dempsey was champion.

IS YOUR HOME A TESTING GROUND for UNTRIED PRODUCTS?

THE ANSWER TO SUBSTITUTION IS ALWAYS...

"NO"

WHAT CAN anyone gain by buying unknown products?

And why should anyone buy them, when it is always safer to ask for brands of recognized quality.

The lure of unknown products is often a "bargain price." The clerk may say they are "just as good" as the popular advertised brands.

But isn't the approval of millions of people worth more than the word of one?

No amount of advertising will create character for a product. But constant advertising does place established character on trial.

The advertised product has a reputation at stake.

It must make good to hold your confidence. One false claim would be fatal.

The substitute product is an unknown brand, with nothing to lose.

In appearance, it may imitate a brand you know.

Over the counter, any claim may be made for it.

Only by sad experience can you prove that claim untrue!

Think of this the next time anyone tries to sell you something "just as good."

Such "just as good" products are urged upon you for only one reason. There is more profit in selling them.

The merchant who permits and encourages such substitution is looking only at today's sales slips. Not at tomorrow's loyal customers.

These facts are published by this newspaper to protect its readers.

Whenever you shop, ask for standard advertised products. Insist on getting them. Be warned by the words "just as good" that there is something better.

When you are guided by names you know you can be sure of constant quality. Of definite purity. Of honest weight. Of full value in return for the money you spent.

N. Y. GANGSTER SLAIN BY FOES

Reputed "Biggest Racketeer of Them All" Victim of Bullet Barrage.

NEW YORK, April 16. Giuseppe Masseria otherwise "Joe the Boss," described as "the biggest racketeer of them all," died from a bullet barrage.

He was shot five times in the back of the head and shoulders while thumbing a deck of cards in an obscure little Italian restaurant. Joe arrived at the restaurant in his stock-stuffed car. It was uncertain whether he arrived alone, or whether there were any customers in the place. The proprietor was out for a walk, and the cook was in the kitchen and another man was in the room.

An hour after he arrived there was a volley of shots in the restaurant and an automobile pulled away from the curb. The feuds which "Joe the Boss" waged in New York have been so many, police said that any one of a dozen enemies might have killed him. They said he was "bigger than Al Capone," that he had a hand in "every racket known."

Moreover, Al Capone is supposed to have warned him in recent weeks that some of his practices were dangerous for his health. He had been arrested a number of times for assault, extortion and burglary, and once he was put away for three years in Sing Sing.

KING OF SIAM NEARS SHORES OF AMERICA

Monarch of Little Nation Seeks Recovery from Illness in U. S.

By The Associated Press. VICTORIA, B. C., April 16.—The king of Siam, an absolute monarch, but also a sick man, trying to get well, will arrive here tomorrow with his consort, Queen Rambhai, aboard the liner Empress of Japan.

A message from the liner said the king was ill. The nature of his illness was not disclosed, but it was not believed to be serious. Plans for entertainment here were cancelled.

The couple is traveling incognito as their royal highnesses, the Prince and Princess of Sukhothai, on a visit to the United States in which King Prajadhipok seeks to regain his normal eyesight by removal of a cataract.

They will travel in private railway cars by way of Minnesota's twin cities and Chicago to New York, at which they probably will arrive April 22. For two days the king will discard his incognito in Washington, D. C. to be received as the absolute ruler of his country.

40 per cent higher than other forms of property.

Senator Robert A. Taft of Cincinnati, chairman, told him that the committee has not gone on record as favoring any increases in the taxes on utilities.

Manufacturers Protest

Representatives of manufacturers' associations, Warren F. Perry of Columbus and Ralph Minor of Akron, protested against a provision in the preliminary draft that would tax machinery and inventories of manufacturers according to book value.

Sales taxes, taxes on tobacco and amusements, and various other forms of levies are to be considered in the general plan of raising enough revenue to meet the reduction expected to be made on real estate.

It appears certain that the personal property tax on automobiles will be abolished, that license tags will be increased on small cars about $2 and that bigger cars will pay proportionate increases. The new plan is to assess for license tags on the basis of car weights and the system is expected to produce around $24,000,000 as compared with $17,500,000 as at present.

Arthur Brisbane's Today

queen went to Paris, perhaps for shopping. It reminds you of the old rhyme about the king "counting out his money," and the queen "in the parlor, eating bread and honey."

The queen may be in the Rue de la Paix today, looking at spring styles. The king may be counting up his money. Doubtless he has put aside enough to take care of his family.

Yesterday brought disagreeable news of rotting and bloodshed in Spain. Republican authorities are like dictators, more severe than kings, and will know how to stop that, probably.

Associated Press reports that the republic will "increase liberty," enforce "respect for all religious creeds" and "modify the agrarian policy to benefit the farmer." Recent American history will inform them that it is not so easy for a republic to benefit farmers.

The colors of the new republic are draped on the doors of the royal palace in Madrid. A new chapter begins.

It may not last forever. Spain had an earlier republic, in 1873. It had four presidents. One lasted four months, one six weeks, one seven weeks, one a few days, then came a dictatorship. And then the Bourbons. Alfonso's family, came back.

LOUIS J. BROWN, president of the Kellogg company, says: "Necessity will force industry in general to a six-hour working day and a higher wage scale."

His firm has adopted the plan. The "higher scale," presumably, means a higher rate per hour, not per six-hour day.

As machinery makes fewer men necessary, the work day and week must be shorter.

The human race must be fed will see to it that it is fed, and in this age you can't adopt the ancient plan of killing off girl babies, thus diminishing the labor supply.

Victory Forecast for Premier MacDonald

By The Associated Press. LONDON, April 16.—The MacDonald government's majority on tonight's division was believed assured by a vote taken by the Liberals this afternoon. Twenty-eight favored supporting the government, seven were in favor of voting for the conservative motion of censure and eight were in favor of abstaining.

As the Laborites hold a normal majority over the Conservatives, the margin of 21 votes by the Liberals appeared certain to give the MacDonald ministry victory.

The Liberals held their caucus to determine how they would vote after listening to former Prime Minister Baldwin. Conservative leader, attacked the government for its unemployment policy, and Tom Johnson, lord privy seal, delivered the government's defense.

DEPOSED KING GOES TO FAMILY IN PARIS

Grief-Stricken Queen Victoria and Children Await Alfonso

A Spanish republic, today found an asylum in France.

Sad-faced and tearful, Queen Victoria, who left an English home to become the bride of King Alfonso, reached Paris with five of their children this forenoon. She returned to a hotel where she was said to be in a state of virtual prostration.

She shut herself up in her bedroom and would see no one upon her doctors' advice that she must have absolute quiet until tonight, when Alfonso is expected here from Marseilles.

With Alfonso's arrival, a few minutes before midnight, the entire Spanish royal family will be gathered in Paris, with the exception of the third son, the Infante Don Juan, who went to Gibraltar yesterday.

It was a grief-stricken queen, who could hardly believe what had happened to them who came by train from Hendaye to Paris.

The queen recovered sufficiently a few hours later to telephone Madrid for latest news of the situation there. She was expecting Queen Elizabeth of the Belgians to arrive from Brussels between 4 and 5 p. m.

ALFONSO IRRITABLE

Tells Newspaper Men He Wants To Be "Left Alone"

By The Associated Press. MARSEILLES, France, April 16.—Alfonso De Bourbon today began in France his exile from Spain over which, as Alfonso XIII he ruled since he was 16 years old.

Nervous and somewhat irritable, he landed here at dawn with his cousin, the Infante Alfonso, and the Duke of Miranda, chief of the royal household, from aboard the cruiser Principe Alfonso on which they left Cartagena before daylight Tuesday. At noon he left for Paris to join his family.

He wore the same brown overcoat and soft grey felt hat he had on when he left Cartagena. His face was lined with fatigue and strain, and for the crowd of newspapermen which met him his only words were: "Leave me alone."

The Duke of Miranda, speaking for him, declared Alfonso had not abdicated the Spanish throne. "His majesty has retained all of his rights," he declared, "he has merely abandoned power in order to avoid trouble or even civil war."

"King Alfonso awaits the forthcoming elections in June to settle the fate of the country. He will remain aloof until the people have decided the form of government they wish and then will abide by their decision."

"The king is going to Paris and he will reside there with his family. There will be no decision as to further residence in London, England, or elsewhere until later."

Montana Woman Lost 17 Pounds Weight In 4 Weeks

Here's a letter written October 21, 1929, by Mrs. Fred Barringer of Lewistown, Montana, that ought to be read by every overweight woman in America.

When stout women can lose fat and at the same time gain in energy and vigor.

Gain in charm and vivaciousness. Gain a healthy complexion and have eyes that sparkle with buoyant health.

And at insignificant cost— isn't it time to use common sense?

Please read this letter carefully: "Gentlemen, I started taking Kruschen Salts every morning as directed as I was very much overweight and wanted to reduce."

I had tried going on a diet but would get so hungry that my diet would not last long so I decided to give 'Kruschen Salts' a fair trial. The day I started to take them I weighed 256 lbs. and at the time has been just four weeks 239 lbs. And I must feel better in every way, looking much better."

May all large people, men and women, who want in an easy way, give Kruschen Salts a fair trial. Just take one or two after each meal and by following directions I

EXTRA SESSION AGAIN ASKED

Senators Nye and Walsh Renew Demands for Meeting of Congress.

By The Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 16.—Renewed insistence upon an extra session of congress to deal with unemployment and agricultural distress came today from Senators Walsh, Democrat of North Dakota, and Nye, Republican of Ohio. Administration leaders maintained their opposition.

"Congress should be here," Nye said, "to provide means for the federal farm board to function during the coming crop year or we will face the greatest emergency in the history of our country next fall."

"And congress should be here devoting itself to the unemployment problem, which continues as serious as it was last winter."

Walsh said he believed a special session was urgently needed because of "grave problems confronting our nation which should be dealt with now."

Republican Leader Watson of the senate said he was opposed to a special assembly. The adjournment of congress, he said, brought a "favorable psychological reaction," which would be lost if congress returned.

COURSE TO OPEN
KENTON, April 16.—W. H. Studebaker has been secured to serve as pro this season at the Spring Grove golf course which will open Saturday, it was announced today by Burr Fennell, chairman of the golf committee. How to Get Relief From Catarrh
If you have catarrh, catarrhal deafness, or head noises, go to Henney & Cooper or your druggist and get 1 oz. of Earsol. (Don't Strengthly) take this home, add to it 12 pint of hot water and a little sugar. Take a tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Closed nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucous stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to make, tastes pleasant and catarrh should give this treatment a trial. You will probably find it is just what you need.—Adv.

When You CAN'T QUIT
A headache is often the sign of fatigue. When temples throb it's time to rest. If you can't stop work, you can stop the pain. Bayer Aspirin will do it, every time. Take two or three tablets, a swallow of water, and carry-on—in comfort.

Don't work with nerves on edge or try all day to forget a nagging pain that aspirin could end in a jiffy! Genuine aspirin can't harm you; just be sure it's Bayer.

In every package of Bayer Aspirin are proven directions for headaches, colds, sore throat, neuralgia, neuritis, etc. Carry these tablets with you, and be prepared. To block a sudden cold on the street-car; quiet a grumbling tooth at the office; relieve a headache in the theatre; spare you a sleepless night when nerves are "jumping."

And no modern girl needs "time out" for the time of month! Bayer Aspirin is an absolute antidote for periodic pain.

Special to The Star.
BUCYRUS, April 16.—Contractors from various cities attended the special meeting of the Bucyrus city school board Wednesday afternoon and evening when the second advertisement for the improvement of Crawford and Norton schools, for which a $80,000 bond issue was approved by the voters last November, were opened and tabulated.

MT. GILEAD, April 16.—As a result of Judge W. P. Vaughan's decision sustaining a demurrer to a petition filed in the suit of Miss Grace Lemley against Herman Holland, operator of the Union store, Miss Lemley's attorneys announce that leave was asked to file an amended petition.

Judge Vaughan held that the petition did not contain sufficient grounds for the attempt to recover approximately $8,000 of which Miss Lemley claimed she was defrauded by Holland. She was vice president of the company at one time.

ARMED MEN ROB GROCERY STORE

Order Upper Sandusky Man To Open Cash Register; Get $50.

Special to The Star.
UPPER SANDUSKY, April 16.—Two armed men held up the Ideal grocery store at East Wyandot and Fifth streets shortly after 9 p. m. yesterday and made their getaway with about $50, the contents of the cash drawer. It is believed they had their car parked in an alley at the rear of building and left the city before an alarm could be sounded. The men had been seen loitering about town during the day.

After entering the store the men asked to purchase some candy and as the proprietor, W. O. Lindensmith, started to wait on them the bandits ordered him to open the register. Mrs. Lindensmith who was in the rear of the store and a customer, T. B. Rogers, also were told to hold up their hands when they came to the front of the store.

This is the third robbery here within the last few months. The Oak restaurant was robbed in December and the Kroger store in February.

PRESSURE ENOUGH TO BLOW YOU TO THE MOON

by FLOYD GIBBONS

They use it in heat-tempering Sohio gasolines

HELLO EVERYBODY!

Talk about your rarebit dreams! Maybe I didn't live through a hair-curler in broad daylight while the lads out at the Sohio refinery were showing me how they fricassee the molecules and multiply the pep of that stride-ahead super-cracked motor fuel they call X-70.

Believe me, toasted cheese at bedtime can hold no further terrors for me after my ordeal by toasted oil. Boil me in white-hot gasoline if that steel-nerved Sohio bunch didn't have me running the temperature of my life.

A thousand degrees of heat and a thousand pounds of pressure—a thousand pounds to the square inch—may not sound like much when you say it fast. But when you have boiling gasoline sizzling all around you at that heat and that pressure—well, by jingo, it wasn't any stunt at all for me to imagine myself in a torture chamber of the old Inquisition and elected for a singe.

There wasn't a moment during that whole inspection tour when my heart wasn't tangling with my larynx, and I'm not ashamed to admit it. Sitting on a figurative powder mine and playing with sure enough fire, is just part of the day's work for those Sohio folks. But it's out of my line—and that's that.

I wasn't kidding myself about the danger, either. It was right on hand, and there was plenty of it. My guides cheerfully admitted that. As we were entering the plant, one of them dropped a word of advice that sent a chill along my backbone.

"If anything busts," he said, "run first and investigate afterward."

Then another chap came through with a matter of fact explanation of just what I was going up against. He told me that thousand degrees hot X-70 didn't need anybody to set a match to it to produce fireworks. One leaky valve, or a break anywhere in the line, would do the trick. If the vaporized gasoline stewing at that terrific temperature ever got out into the open air, it would be just too bad. At the instant it came in contact with oxygen, up it would go in flames.

When that bad news was sprung on me, I began thinking of the refinery as one large accident on its way to happen. I knew the Sohio crowd were working with heats and pressures way above any ever ventured before in the history of refining—holding them in pipes and coils of special new alloys developed for their particular job. On paper those alloys figured out as tough enough to carry the load. But I'll tell the world I kept my fingers crossed while I was climbing over those great cannonlike cracking coils where the old X-70—hotter than the hinges—was having its molecules lifted. And when those Sohio research scientists swung open a little glass window and let me look into the inferno of the furnace where better than 1600 degrees of heat were blistering the gasoline lines, I sure thought suddenly of a lot of places where I'd rather have been.

Gibbons is initiated into the secrets of the Sohio heat-tempering equipment.

Keeping my mind on the facts and figures being rattled off while I was in the vicinity of that furnace—that was certainly some job of concentration. Batteries of flame-throwers lined in front were filling the interior with a seething, swirling mass of blazing gas, and all that stood between that 1650-degree fire and the pent-up fury of the boiling oils just above was a little matter of three-eighths of an inch of steel tubing.

The steel was specially forged—the steel industry's contribution to the Sohio heat-tempering process, and the thing that makes it possible. I was told that ordinary steel would melt like butter at such a temperature. That was dope direct from headquarters, for the man talking in swift, punchy sentences at my elbow was the originator of heat-tempered gasoline—Stuart Harrison, Sohio's vice-president in charge of manufacturing and boss molecule buster of the X-70 works.

"That heat," he said, "is right up to the limit of our fire protection. If we let it run any hotter it would melt the brick of the furnace. We're as high as we can go with heat and pressure—right up to the tensile strength of the metal. Do you know what would happen if we stepped things up a little further? That steel would stretch like a rubber band."

You bet that was something I was willing to take on faith, without being shown. If anybody had made a move to turn on more heat that party would have been one reporter shy all of a sudden, and I don't mean maybe.

The molecule buster switched onto the subject of safety devices then, and that made pleasant listening. The perils of that gasoline-toasting racket were plenty apparent to the naked eye without having them drilled in through the ears. Gadgets that I was told were valves of forged steel—carved out of solid blocks of metal—were pointed out to me.

"Got to have forged valves on this job," said Harrison. "Flaws creep into castings. They wouldn't stand up under the high pressures and temperatures, and the job would be destroyed by fire."

"Notice that each of those valves has a chain and sprocket on it. They all run behind that brick wall. If anything happens out here the valves can be controlled by an operator back of the wall. Those tubes over there, they are nothing more or less than gun barrels. They're bored out, leaving walls more than half an inch thick. We don't take any chance on lap weld or hammer weld. You see, we're operating on a safety factor of four to one."

More safety dodges—everything automatic—were shown to me in the control room, a place that looked like a hospital corridor with its walls of gleaming tile and glass.

Floyd Gibbons inspects one of the special steel alloy forgings necessary to control Sohio pressures. This one holds 1,000 pounds pressure on one side ... 75 pounds on the other.

Here's a whole gang of Sohio "molecule busters" taking a few minutes off to hear Gibbons relate his impressions of the Sohio heat-tempering method.

"That's a heavy wire glass," explained the molecule buster. "It will hold against anything short of a tremendous gas explosion. You see the pumping room beyond. The oil running through there is so hot that it would immediately put the room on fire in case of a leak. If that happens the operator in here just closes a valve. The fire out under the cracking coil is thrown off, and the pump room is filled with steam. These instruments you see along the wall are checking temperatures all over the job."

Outside the control room a sample of finished, heat-tempered X-70 was drawn off and handed to me.

Next stop after that was the soaking drums—enormous cylinders like up-ended cannon, bored out of mighty chunks of that special alloy steel. Harrison told me that, inside their seven-inch walls gasoline molecules were being chewed up in the grand finale of the process that yields heat-tempered Sohio X-70.

These soakers looked good and substantial to me. They didn't seem anything like as flighty as that roaring furnace down below. I took their word that these seven-inch walls were plenty strong to hold that thousand-pound pressure and the terrific heat that went with it. Just to prove it, I leaned against one of the soakers while we stood up on the wind-swept platform and chinned.

But you won't catch me doing that again. No, sir—never! It just happened to be my lucky day. Nothing happened. But a couple of days later—wow! That was a double Jonah day, Friday the Thirteenth, and the same soaker I had been using for a backrest celebrated by going on fire. They wrote to tell me what I had missed—and guess wasn't I glad I had missed it. Even though I was a couple of states and a couple of days away from that blaze, the description of it sure raised the goose-flesh. For thirty-five minutes that personal pet soaking drum of mine was just one mass of flaming vapor, and every minute of the thirty-five carried the possibility that the whole shooting-match would go bye-bye. However, the forged steel walls stood the gaff and the soakers are still where I saw them last. Okay. They can stay there—but I'll stay somewhere else, thank you.

Well, I'll be switched, boys and girls. Here I've meandered clear through my space again, and haven't unloaded half what I had on my mind. But, anyway, I'll be back on the air next week with another earful about Sohio X-70. Until then—be careful what you lean against!
